Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration: For Eleven Months Ending With November, 1919 To the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court Assembled. This Board, established on June 2, 1886, renders its final report as it merges in the new Department of Labor and Industries. The report is a concise statement of its doings in the first eleven months of the calendar year, in circumstances of business uncertainty and labor unrest while the nation has been passing from a stay of arms to a peace not yet concluded. Industry may suffer from labor unrest when there is no defined controversy; and controversy often exists where there is no trouble. When strike or lockout is declared to enforce or resist a demand, the disturbance should be distinguished from the grievance which is quoted in excuse. A labor dispute in this Commonwealth requires no hostile accompaniment; the law provides ample means for a peaceful adjustment. A willful cessation of industrial activity provokes retaliation; it excites ill will, which disqualifies the parties for...
