Death had been at work in that quiet valley, and many new tomb-stones were there. On some, over which the moss and wild vines were creeping, I traced names that were as familiar to me as my own. I sat down in the angle formed by the vestry behind the church and yielded to my sad forebodings. How many of these new tenants of the grave were bone of my bone? Perhaps my father I Perhaps (and the thought was indeed bitter), perhaps my mother! And then I remembered the sad voice, the tender embrace, the last look of our parting twenty years ago. Every night in those long years had I laid my head on my pillow with the remembrance of my mother s blessing resting like the dew of heaven upon my heart.
