RIVISTA CONTEMPORANEA (4)

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 40 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)52579597 Subject: Economic assistance, American -- Afghanistan. Excerpt: . . . Finally, let me point out that this hearing represents the first in a series designed to investigate reconstruction efforts and the ongoing security challenges in Afghanistan. Upon the Senates return from recess, the committee will host a meeting with Chairman Hamid Karzai. Dr. Karzai has provided important leadership to Afghanistan at a critical time in its history. It will be a great privilege to have him with us for that meeting. We look forward to the witnesses this morning and I call now upon our first witness, the Honorable David Johnson, for his report. Thank you, sir. The prepared statement of Senator Lugar follows: Opening Statement of Senator Richard G. Lugar Today the Committee meets to review U. S. policy toward Afghanistan and our ongoing efforts to assist that country in recovering from the damage incurred under the rule of the Taliban, and from former tenants such as Osama bin Laden and al-Qaeda. In the months ahead, the United States will be focusing increased attention on threats posed by Iraq and North Korea, but we cannot abandon our commitments or lose sight of our goals in Afghanistan. The international community will take notice of our staying power in Afghanistan. If we are able to help Afghanistan transition into a secure democracy, we will bolster our ability to attract allies in the war against terrorism. Our commitment to Afghanistan is also a demonstration of how we will approach post-conflict Iraq. American credibility is on the line in these situations, and we must understand that failure to follow through could have extremely negative consequences on the war on terror. While military experts have been saying...
