2014. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 176 pages. English Women's empowerment is just a word in today's context. Women have come a long way, and are actively participating in the all walks of life be it education, employment or politics. The National Commission for Women has achieved a lot towards this. The Swadhar Scheme was launched by the Central Government for providing holistic and integrated services to women in difficult circumstances, such as destitute widows deserted by their families in religious places, women prisoners, support trafficked women/girls, rescued or runaway from brothels or other places or victims of sexual crimes, and mentally challenged women. This book professes to review policies, programmes and schemes of State and Central Governments for development and empowerment of women in their distress to examine the status of shelter homes, to examine the living conditions of women in selected Swadhar homes and finally to suggest policy measures for effective and efficient functioning of Swadhar Scheme.
